

INTERNATIONAL MARITIME LAW CONFERENCE

“Indian Shipping and International Maritime Law”

IMLA and MLAS are proud to present the joint conference, which will be held at the Hotel Trident Nariman Point, Mumbai India from 21 to 22 February 2018.

Highlights of International Maritime Law Conference:

- Overview of the Indian maritime economy and its laws and regulations, where the economy is heading and what laws and regulations are likely to be implemented in future in response to the growth and development of the economy.
- Debate between panellists on whether tonnage in the Indian registry of ships will grow in tandem with India's economic growth or whether Indian law and regulation will cause Indian shipowners to seek registration and finance elsewhere.
- Explore the power of the Indian court to sell ships that are arrested in India and elsewhere and the issues that may arise from recognition of such judicial sale orders.
- Insights into India's growing oil and gas market, its current growth, future production and demand and import dependency.
- A special session led by the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration to look at the process of maritime arbitration and highlight features of maritime arbitration can help parties resolve their disputes in an efficient, expeditious and economical way.

Sign up as a delegate and be part of the leading global platform which sessions will be presented in a highly interactive, panel discussion-based format to facilitate greater, more in depth interaction between panellists and delegates.

Registration starts on November 2017

Organiser

IMLA, a non-governmental organisation and an affiliate of Comite Maritime International (CMI), is intended to be an umbrella organisation to represent every sector of the Indian Maritime Industry. Objectives of IMLA also include setting up of an exclusive Maritime Centre in India; to promote India as a maritime country, and to promote and advocate the advancement of Indian maritime interests within India and globally and to encourage the study and development of Indian maritime and mercantile laws and also their uniform implementation all over India.

The Maritime Law Association of Singapore (MLAS) aims to promote the study and advancement of maritime law and its administration in Singapore, and to promote and consider with other associations proposals for the unification of maritime law and practice of different nations.

Knowledge Partner

Maritime Law Association of Singapore Secretariat
c/o Enterprise Promotion Centres Pte Ltd
1003 Bukit Merah Central #02-10 Inno.Centre Singapore 159836
Main Line: +65-6278 2538
Joanne Tan | Tel: +65-6377 6619 | Email: joannetan@epc.com.sg
Bong Pei Tien | Tel: +65-6377 6617 | Email: bong.peitien@epc.com.sg