Subject: RV: Re[2]: CMI - CMI Arbitration - Questionnaire

Dear President,

The CMI questionnaire on Arbitration has been considered by the Executive Council of the Argentine Maritime Law Association.

It is clear that the ICC / CMI System has not been welcomed by the maritime community, which seems to be satisfied with the existing arbitration centers.

The comparative analysis of the arbitration rules and practices as well as the recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards are issues which have been considered at length in the juridical literature.

From our consideration of the above we conclude that it is not necessary that the CMI play a part in maritime arbitration.

Finally, we may add that our Association has its own Arbitral Rules and Committee in place since 2005, and a number of local and regional contracts refer disputes to our system. However, in practice our Arbitral Committee has been required to arbitrate only one case. In another dispute, even though our Rules were applicable our Arbitral Committee was not required to intervene.

Kind regards,

Alberto C. Cappagli
