

COMITÉ MARITIME INTERNATIONAL

yCMI Essay Prize

The Comité Maritime International invites submissions for the 2019 Young Persons' Essay Prize for original unpublished writing.

Topic for 2019: Unmanned ships and cybercrime: how will technology and a new crimewave rock the boat of traditional maritime law and marine insurance practice and principle. How can the regulatory framework of the shipping industry adapt to cope with these challenges?

Who may submit:

Candidates should be:

- 35 or younger on 30 April 2019; and
- A member of a CMI member Maritime Law Association; or
- A person actively engaged in the practice, study or research of maritime law as prescribed in the Prize Rules.

Closing date:

30 April 2019

Length of paper:

Max 6000 words

How & Where to submit:

By email to admin-antwerp@comitemaritime.org

Rules & Criteria:

On the CMI website <https://comitemaritime.org/young-cmi/>

The prize:

An invitation to attend the next CMI international event, in Mexico City in September/October 2019 - including travel from your home city, accommodation in Mexico City, CMI conference registration fee and a modest spending allowance.

More importantly, the opportunity to present a condensed version of your winning paper to the CMI's gathering of the world's leading maritime lawyers.

This is the maritime world's most prestigious prize for original writing

Please note that the Prize Rules lay down strict requirements for timing, supporting documentation, structure, citation and format of entries. All requirements must be met by the closing date for a submission to be considered.
