

ADRIATIC MARITIME LAW CONFERENCE VI

Trieste, Italy, 20-22 June 2024

AMLC 2024 is the sixth in a series of conferences traditionally co-organized by the national Maritime Law Associations of Italy, Slovenia and Croatia since 2016. The newly founded Montenegrin Maritime Law Association has joined the AMLC family this year. The Conference is hosted alternately by one of the participating national associations every two years. This year's host is the Italian Maritime Law Association, that celebrates its 125th anniversary and the venue of the AMLC VI is Trieste. The Conference participants will discuss current global maritime law developments and certain issues common to the Adriatic coastal states.

Opening ceremony comprises introductory remarks by the Presidents of the four Maritime Law Associations Giorgio Berlingieri, Boris Jerman, Časlav Pejović and Gordan Stanković followed by their speeches within the keynote session.

Besides the keynote session, the AMLC VI includes six sessions with twenty-two presentations on the following topics:

- Energy Transition, Decarbonisation and Green Deal in Shipping Industry
- Revision of the 1910 Collision Convention
- Ratification of the Rotterdam Rules
- Legal Aspects of Digital Technologies in Maritime Transport
- Maritime Security, Safety of Navigation and Protection of Marine Environment in the Adriatic
- Adriatic Seaports and Marinas - Yachts Chartering and Sanctions
- The Recent Developments of Maritime Law

The Conference organizers have received registrations from 79 participants from Albania, Croatia, Germany, Italy, Malta, Montenegro, Poland and Slovenia. The next Adriatic Maritime Law Conference will take place in 2026 in Slovenia or in Montenegro.
