

Albano GILABERT-GASCON

PhD in Law

Professor of Commercial and Maritime Law

---

Albano Gilabert-Gascon holds a PhD in Law from the Università degli Studi di Bologna and the Universitat Jaume I of Castellon. To date, his research career has focused on the field of maritime law and marine insurance, being the author of several articles in various national and international journals, as well as of some book chapters. Likewise, he has also participated as speaker at numerous national and international Conferences. Of all his publications, it is worth to mention his recently published monograph Los contratos de utilización del buque y el seguro marítimo, as well as his essay “Direct action against P&I Clubs in the European Union: Competent Jurisdiction, Legal Nature and Applicable Law”, winner of the Francesco Berlingieri Prize 2023 awarded by the Italian journal Il Diritto Marittimo. Albano has taught several subjects related to transport and maritime law at the Universitat Jaume I of Castellon (Spain), at the Université Catholique de Lille (France) and at the Università degli Studi di Cagliari (Italy).